March 17, 2008

LOS ANGELES, January 22, 2008 — This year's 'Backstage at the Geffen' honorees include Robert A. Iger, President and CEO, The Walt Disney Company, and multi-award winning actress, Annette Bening, who will be recognized at the playhouse's annual gala on March 17. Mr. Iger will receive the Geffen's Distinction in Service award for his continued commitment to children and the arts. The Walt Disney Company has been instrumental in revitalizing American theater to a new generation and has made generous contributions towards positively impacting the lives of children and families. Internationally acclaimed actress and activist Annette Bening will receive the Geffen's Distinction in Theater award in recognition of her seemingly inexhaustible vast commitment to the arts both on and off stage.

Mr. Iger's award will be presented by theater/film director Julie Taymor, who garnered two Tony Awards for her work on the Disney theatrical production of The Lion King. Presenting Ms. Bening's award is fellow actress and activist Angelica Huston; the two women co-starred in the 1990 film The Grifters for which they both received Academy Award nominations.

Mr. Iger and Ms. Bening join an elite group of Geffen honorees including Helen Mirren (presented by John Lithgow in 2007), HBO President Colin Callender (presented by Annette Bening in 2006) and Karl Malden (presented by Tom Hanks 2005), who have each been celebrated at the Backstage at the Geffen gala, an event that has become known throughout the city as a "must-attend" night at the theater.

Producing Director Gil Cates guides an audience of theater lovers on a virtual backstage tour through a collection of intimate performances and behind-the-scenes stories told by some of LA's most prominent performers. This year's performances will be announced shortly, but previous artists who have shared their backstage stories include: Jason Alexander, Debbie Allen, Sally Field, Carrie Fisher, David Hyde Pierce and Rita Wilson.

The evening raises funds for the Geffen's Stage for Any Age programs, which help bring the excitement of live theater to nearly 24,000 families and community members each year. The proceeds from Backstage at the Geffen help underwrite low ticket admissions to Saturday Scene, the popular theater performances for children; fully support the Geffen School Tours Program that takes theater to participating elementary and middle-schools that have little or no resources for the performing arts; and benefit CREATE (Community Representatives Engaged in Active Theater Education), a season-long, interactive exploration and analysis of live theater for community and social service groups, deemed a model program by the City of Los Angeles.
